

Projected Costs for the BS/MEd Coordinated Program

Graduate Application Fee	$40
Transportation to Supervised Practice sites and professional meetings; Commute to rotation may be 1 hour each way	Varies with personal arrangements Student is responsible for cost of travel such as gas and car maintenance
Meals while off campus for Supervised Practice experiences and professional meetings	Varies with personal preferences
Student Membership in the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics	$58
Student Professional Liability Insurance	$30/year
Medical Scrubs	$50 each
Lab Coat (if required by preceptor)	$60 (approximately)
Permanent program name badge	$10
Inman RDN Review Course – https://www.inmanassoc.com/review.htm	$385
Attendance at the Alabama Dietetic Association Meeting, the Birmingham District Dietetic Association Meetings, and FNCE meeting	$200-400/year (Not Required)
SERV Safe Certification Course	$100 - $150
Accommodations and meals while participating in short-term off-campus experiences as required	Varies with personal arrangements
Health Insurance	Varies with personal arrangements
Personal computer and internet access	Varies Reliable with full-time access required
Textbooks	$1000 - $1500
Background check and fingerprinting to comply with state law	$25 - $100
TB Skin Test	$10 - $20
Drug Screening	$35
Flu Vaccine	$5 - $20
COVID-19 Test or vaccine (if required)	Varies
Tuition for 2025 – 2026 (per credit hour)	Undergraduate - In State – $403 Out of State - $837
Tuition for 2025 - 2026 (per credit hour)	Graduate - In State – $438.00 Out of State - $1, 047
Student fees for 2025 - 2026	$1,848/year
Food	$3,842 - $4372
Housing	$5,200 - $9,000

Estimated expenses of students in the Coordinated Program/Master of Science in Nutrition + the typical university expenses.